

Libraries for Tomorrow Fair & Seminar; Annual LAS Dinner

Join us for an eventful day of interesting and creative technologies that will create Libraries for Tomorrow!

Want an inside look at the latest technology and innovations in the digital environment? Want to know the most recent databases that captivate researchers and professionals? Any idea what is the most “in” creations or web technology in the library world? Catch up with renowned database vendors and technology companies at our Product Fair to help you identify the best practices and upcoming technologies to enhance library services. Participating vendors include Lexis Nexis, ExLibris, Emerald and many more big names at the Fair. Admission to the Fair is Free!

Or would you prefer a platform to learn about insights of your fellow professionals? Join us at the Library Seminar and Sharing Session to find out the challenges and trends in the library environment. The event offers a half-a-day seminar with paper and poster presentations highlighting the best practices in technological innovations to enhance library services and library management. The scope of the seminar will be library technology, digital applications in library services, communicational technologies, digital repositories, library management systems and library 2.0. Register for the seminar and see examples of what libraries are doing with these technologies and learn specific skills or knowledge that you can take back and adapt for use within your own library.

Don't forget to round up the evening with our inaugural LAS Annual Dinner, graced by our Patron – Professor Tommy Koh! Be pampered with artistic performances and a delicious four-course sit-down served dinner. It is the ideal opportunity for members to network in an elegant and relaxed ambience. The inaugural LAS Annual Dinner will also honour members who have rendered outstanding services to the profession, with the presentation of three prestigious awards – LAS Outstanding Newcomer Award, LAS Professional Service Award and LAS Lifetime Contribution Award.

Do register early and get Early Bird Discounts! Early bird registration expires 18 September 2009. For more information and registration, please refer to the attached flyer.
