

IRAS' Resource Centre

You will join IRAS' Resource Centre, which is part of the Training & Knowledge Management Branch, and be involved in the following:

- i) Defining information needs, building up the resource collection and sourcing for external information.
- ii) Exploring new technologies to streamline information management and enhance value-added services.
- iii) Implementing programmes to promote learning & sharing culture.
- iv) Assisting users in information retrieval.
- v) Managing the daily operations of the Resource Centre.

Job requirements

- i) Degree in Library and Information Services or Knowledge Management is preferred.
- ii) Candidates should have at least 2 years of relevant experience.
- iii) Candidates should be familiar with online databases and information resources.

An attractive remuneration package which commensurate with qualifications and experience will be offered to successful candidates.

Interested applicants are welcome to apply online at <http://www.iras.gov.sg> (Careers and Scholarships) or email to careers@iras.gov.sg