

Guest Speaker Series on "Creative Commons and Copyright"

Molly Kleinman received her Bachelor of Arts in English Literature from Bryn Mawr College, and her Masters in the Science of Information from the University of Michigan School of Information. She is a member of the American Library Association, and serves as a Copyright Scholar for the ALA's Copyright Advisory Network.

Before becoming a librarian, Molly was an associate at the Wendy Weil Literary Agency in New York, where she assisted with contract negotiations, managed permission requests and reprint rights, developed new contracts for digital and audio permissions, and evaluated manuscript submissions.

As Copyright Specialist for the University of Michigan Libraries, Molly redesigned and manages the U-M copyright website, coordinates copyright education and outreach for faculty, staff, and students, and works on author advocacy initiatives.
